INDAH
The Culinary Retreat

A photograph of a plate of fried chicken and a bowl of sauce. The chicken is golden brown and crispy, served on a green banana leaf. A white bowl containing a thick, orange-colored sauce is visible in the upper right corner. The background is slightly blurred, showing more of the green leaf and the plate.

At Bayan Indah, Business = Pleasure

BAYAN INDAH IS MORE THAN JUST A COOKING SCHOOL. We are not only about cooking classes; we can also look after your various business and entertaining needs. Let us help you make business a pleasure.

The beauty of Bayan Indah has attracted many major companies to host their corporate events with us. We are described as a different, distinctive, charming and quirky location; and most often, as a delicious destination!

How to Mix Business with Pleasure

Companies are always seeking new and interesting ways to delight clients and employees. At Bayan Indah, we help companies to plan and organise events which do exactly that. Bayan Indah helps companies to design events which mix business with culture and real pleasure.

Build team spirit, cement relationships and enhance communication by organising a customised culinary challenge for your colleagues in our open concept kitchen. Invite your important foreign business visitors (and their spouses / partners) to indulge in culinary adventures (e.g. cooking classes or specially catered functions) that can provide them with authentic insights into our colourful Malaysian culture.

An Easy Escape from The City

Tired of hosting events in dull, windowless meeting rooms at the same old venues? Looking for a boutique location offering unique activities, great facilities as well as good service? Longing for a sanctuary from everyday city life which offers natural light, fresh air, calm and tranquillity but do not want the hassle of flying or long distance driving?

Bayan Indah is an easy escape from the concrete jungle, situated less than 30 minutes by car from Kuala Lumpur's City Centre.

Offsite and Off The Beaten Track

Bayan Indah is the perfect place to host an off-site team meeting, a management retreat, strategy pow-wow, presentation or product launch. You can opt to also combine these with fun culinary activities for an unusual and gratifying day out. Top-notch in-house catering is provided using the freshest ingredients, some sourced from our own organic gardens.

Unusual and Thoughtful

Tired of hosting corporate clients at the usual restaurants in the city? Are you a thoughtful employer thinking of holding a special “thank you” dinner for your valued staff? We can cater private lunches and dinner parties, customised just for you and your guests. We have hosted many company colleagues and clients for corporate get-togethers and milestone celebrations. Everyone has loved every minute they have spent at our events.

Creative Events That Create Conversations

Bayan Indah takes pride in our personal touch and attention to small details. We do not offer standard, off-the-shelf services but listen carefully to your needs to fine-tune our functions to your requirements.

Unlike large hotels or convention venues, we only host one dedicated event per day. This is to ensure that groups who come to Bayan Indah will have a truly exclusive experience and receive the highest level of customer service that we can deliver.

So, at Bayan Indah, your corporate event will be more than just an ordinary occasion; it will be a memorable experience - one you which you will talk about for a long time to come.

Creative, exclusive days out at Bayan Indah are really great value for money. We are less than 30 minutes from KLCC, but we cannot be more different.
